CONCEPT DIAGRAM

At the peak and core of the site, the memorial structure is located within the footprint of the old school house. Surrounding, but a step down from the core are elements which embrace and build upon the historic past while shaping the future such as the playground and the memorial steps. Stepping down further from the peak, places for activities such as walking and playing sports have been sculpted into the site. The concept emphasizes the grade changes which delineate the different areas of use.

This drawing is conceptual and was prepared to show approximate location and arrangement of site features. It is subject to change and is not intended to replace the use of construction documents.
